Houston Market

For the first time in a decade, Houston ranks among the top 10 markets in ULI's "Emerging Trends in Real Estate" report — a clear testament to the city's momentum as a hub of growth, opportunity, and investment. Known for its innovation and resilience, Houston has cemented its place as a leading player on national and global stages. This dynamic market, fueled by rapid population growth and economic diversity, is generating strong demand in retail and land development.

Houston's population exceeds 7 million, making it the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the U.S. and one of the fastest-growing. In 2023, Houston recorded the second-largest year-over-year population increase among major U.S. metros. This influx drives demand for retail spaces that are accessible, visible, and tailored to the evolving behaviors of consumers.

Retail centers offering experiential shopping and convenient access attract both tenants and investors. Land acquisition and development remain fundamental to Houston's growth and development. Infrastructure improvements and expanding suburbs have opened areas ripe for commercial, medical, entertainment, and retail projects.

Houston's economic diversification, with 26 Fortune 500 companies headquartered here and a strong presence in energy, healthcare, logistics, and manufacturing, adds stability and fuels continuous commercial real estate activity. This, coupled with a growing workforce and improving infrastructure, keeps Houston's retail and land sectors attractive to investors seeking sustainable growth.

At Alison Commercial Group, we leverage deep local knowledge and a results-driven approach to help clients capitalize on these market dynamics and achieve their investment goals

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
