Property overview

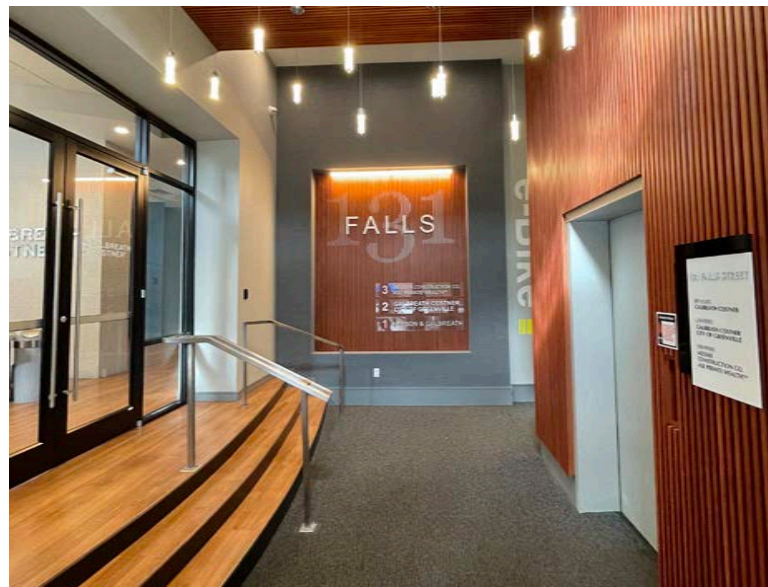

This three story office building, sitting right on the corner of Falls Street and Broad Street is a member of the National Register of Historic Places. The full building was renovated with modern, high end finishes in 2018. This space is move-in ready for a professional office user. High ceilings and large windows provide natural light that floods throughout the space. Furniture can be included.

Six parking spots are available in the Bouharoun's lot, directly across Broad Street. The City of Greenville's Broad Street Parking Garage is located on the same block, where parking spaces are available for $72 per month.
