A completely self-contained space in a prominent position right in the heart of the City, 17 Bevis Marks is ideal for a company seeking privacy and a space where they can create and cultivate their brand identity and office culture. Featuring exposed ceilings and suspended panel lighting. Currently in an open-plan configuration with bespoke desks to match the building style, the space can be re-arranged with breakout/meeting rooms incorporated as required. For those looking to make their mark with a presence in the City, this is the spot for you.
