ABOUT EASTFIELD BUSINESS DISTRICT

- Eastfield Business District is one of Calgary's most established industrial and logistics hubs, strategically positioned in the city's southeast industrial corridor.
- Renowned for its exceptional connectivity, the district provides direct access to major transportation routes including 52 Street SE, Peigan Trail, Barlow Trail, Deerfoot Trail, and Stoney Trail, enabling efficient movement of goods throughout Calgary and Western Canada.
- The area is home to a diverse mix of warehousing, distribution, manufacturing, transportation, and service-based businesses.
- Located approximately 15 minutes from Downtown Calgary.

DEMOGRAPHICS & ACCESSIBILITY

Eastfield Business District offers businesses access to a substantial labour pool drawn from Calgary's established east and southeast communities. The area's central location within Calgary's industrial corridor provides convenient access for employees, customers, and suppliers, while its proximity to major transportation routes supports efficient commuting and workforce mobility. Eastfield remains a preferred destination for logistics, manufacturing, warehousing, transportation, and industrial service users seeking a strategic and well-connected business location

Within a 10 km radius, the area boasts a population of over 437,010 residents, expected to grow by 2.5% annually through 2033. Average household income in this trade area exceeds $122,690 and there are more than 400,581 daytime employees within reach — including over 25,000 in retail and service businesses.
