Clark County Nevada

Synopsis

As of the 2020 census, the population was 2,265,461, with an estimated population of 2,506,458 in 2025. Most of the county population resides in the Las Vegas Census County Divisions across ±435 square miles. It is by far the most populous county in Nevada, and the 11th most populous county in the United States. It covers 7% of the state's land area but holds 73% of the state's population, making Nevada one of the most centralized states in the United States.

With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark County is the nation's 14th-largest county. The County is a mix of urban and rural locales that offers the convenience of city living with access to some of the nation's best outdoor recreational areas just a short drive away.

Clark County employs more than 10,000 people over 38 departments. The County has an annual budget of $11.4 billion, which surpasses that of the state government.

Synopsis

Boulder City offers a stable commercial investment landscape secured by a city charter that prohibits gambling and restricts high-density growth. This framework ensures low crime rates and a desirable atmosphere, attracting affluent residents who provide a reliable customer base. The city's Redevelopment Agency offers incentives for controlled, sustainable development, promoting long-term property value.

As the Gateway to Hoover Dam and Lake Mead, Boulder City benefits from a strong, continuous flow of tourism, boosting demand for lodging, dining, and retail. Located just 25 miles from the Las Vegas metro area, it offers proximity to a major market without the volatility, making it a highly attractive component of Clark County's investment portfolio.

Boulder City has been the recipient of the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award on multiple occasions

Boulder City was again honored by the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) for its 2025 budget. This award signifies the city's commitment to the highest principles of governmental budgeting, serving as a clear policy document, financial plan, operations guide, and communication tool.
