Location

The property is located on Torridon Road, close to its junction with Brownhill Road (A205) South Circular, which is a major thoroughfare route, providing connections to the Blackwall Tunnell, Woolwich Ferry, and Kent to the east, and Chiswick Roundabout to the west.

The locality is predominantly residential, with Catford Town Centre approximately 1.2 miles to the west, providing an excellent mix of national and independent retailers, restaurants, and bars. Hither Green (0.5 miles), Catford Bridge and Catford Stations (1.2 miles) provide regular Southeastern and Thameslink services. Numerous buses also serve the locality.

Description

The premises form a self-contained, church building arranged over ground and first floor levels, and benefits from the following:

- Large hall area, with a separate raised stage, strip lighting, wooden flooring, and entryway/circulation area.
- Yard/playground space to the front of the building which has been partially fenced.
- 3 individual rooms which could be used for offices, storage or small classrooms
- Kitchen and large serving room
- •Separate male and female W.Cs
- The property also benefits from multiple pedestrian entrances and fire exits.

The building itself has gas central heating and electricity supply, and good natural light. Set within the circulation area leading off from the hall area, there are multiple built-in cupboards, which would be convenient for storage of coats and other items.

Torridon Road and neighbouring streets provide ample free parking, or drop-off and collection opportunities.
