ABOUT POOLER

The city of Pooler, Georgia, is situated in Chatham County, where I-95 and I-16 intersect. It's located 10 miles to the west of Savannah and within a two-mile radius of the Savannah/Hilton Head International Airport. The city covers an area of about 31 square miles and currently has a population of around 28,738. Since its establishment in 1907, Pooler has experienced significant growth with the development of financial institutions, retail shops, professional offices, warehouses and restaurants. Today, Pooler is the hub of commercial development in west Chatham County. The area's exponential growth is attributed to low crime rates and the small-town community feel.

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Towne Lake Park of Commerce is a professionally planned business environment strategically located near major retail, dining, and residential developments. The property provides immediate access to Interstate 95 and Pooler Parkway, offering seamless connectivity throughout the greater Savannah region. Pooler's continued population and commercial growth make this location highly desirable for long-term tenancy and investment stability.
