PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Omaha Works Business Park is a landmark industrial property built in 1958. Originally occupied by Western Electric, at its peak the facility employed over 6,000 workers. The sprawling 350 acre campus consisted of dozens of buildings containing nearly 2.5 million square feet. Over the previous decades, the facility has been subdivided to accommodate a mix of office and industrial uses. The property offers a central location within the Omaha metro adjacent to Interstate-80 (via I Street and L Street) and a Union Pacific Railroad mainline with many nearby retail amenities.
