LOCATION

The property is located in the west end district of Aberdeen and the heart of the west end office area. Aberdeen is the principal administrative centre of the north east of Scotland and has an international airport, main line railway station and harbour serving the North Sea oil and gas industry and a ferry port serving the northern isles. It has two universities and a number of higher educational institutions and has a current population of around 230,000.

9 Victoria Street is located on the east side of Victoria Street which runs between Thistle Street/Waverley Place and Alford Place and is also within close proximity of Union Street which is Aberdeen's main commercial and retail thoroughfare. Consequently, the property benefits from excellent transport links.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a terraced office building of traditional stone construction under a pitched slate roof. The available accommodation is located on the first and second floors of the property.

Internally the specification of the offices are consistent throughout both the first and second floor levels. The office areas have been refurbished with new lighting, heating and welfare areas. The building is configured through a series of cellular office rooms. Throughout the property there are ceiling mounted diffused lights. The walls are painted and plastered throughout. There are carpet tiles throughout and electric heaters in situ. Double glazed sash and casement windows are used throughout the property. There are also data cable points located throughout the building.

Toilets are located on the second floor of the property.

There is a tarmac car park located to the rear of the property which is accessed via Thistle Place.
