The Opportunity

Unit 104 at 3855 Henning Drive presents an opportunity to acquire a two-level strata lot in Burnaby's Still Creek Business Park. The configuration spans two separated floors, offering the distinct ability to operate the property as one unit or as two completely independent functional spaces. This flexibility is supported by current tenancies that are highly adaptable, allowing the property to be delivered either fully vacant for an owner-occupier, fully leased as a stabilized investment, or partially leased for those looking to offset their mortgage with rental income.
