Junction-Wallace

Located in the highly sought-after Junction and Wallace Emerson neighbourhoods of Toronto's west end, the area offers a strong blend of urban convenience, transit accessibility, and community-oriented living. The neighbourhood is known for its walkability, access to TTC subway and streetcar routes, and close proximity to High Park and downtown Toronto, providing efficient connections to major employment centers.

The Junction and Wallace Emerson continue to see steady reinvestment and growing renter demand, supported by a vibrant mix of local shops, restaurants, parks, schools, and community facilities. With well-established residential streets and ongoing neighbourhood growth, the area remains an attractive choice for both long-term residents and real estate investors.
