Georgetown, Texas

Businesses and residents are drawn to Georgetown because of its proximity to Austin and its amenities, while offering small-town charm. Georgetown's workforce spans from Austin to north Temple, boasting over 1 million skilled workers. With nearly half of residents holding a bachelor's degree or higher, Georgetown outpaces state and national averages. This city, home to the "Most Beautiful Town Square in Texas," is located 30 miles north of Austin.

Berry Creek Business Park's location enables faster freight movement, reduced delivery times, and enhanced supply chain efficiency.

Located at the junction of Interstate 35 and State Highway 130, this site is highly desirable for logistics users. Interstate 35 is a key route for regional commerce, supply chains, and cross-border trade with Canada and Mexico, while SH-130 offers a fast bypass around Austin, reducing traffic congestion on the crucial I-35 Corridor and enhancing connections between major economic centers in the state.
