DESCRIPTION

D'Arry's is a distinctive independent venue in the heart of Cambridge that brings together a full service restaurant, an inviting rooftop bar, and an artisan cheesemonger to create a memorable food and drink destination. The restaurant offers seasonal dishes made with high quality ingredients alongside an extensive wine list, while The Liquor Loft provides a stylish upstairs bar where guests can enjoy craft cocktails, barrel aged creations, and a lively social atmosphere. D'Arry's also includes a specialist cheesemonger where trained experts present award winning British cheeses and host engaging tasting experiences.

The site has a rich heritage and occupies part of the former George Scales Brewery, which was established in 1866 and remained active until 1925. For many decades the buildings were home to the Cambridge Arms, a well known local pub that formed an important part of the city's social life before the site evolved through several later uses and eventually became D'Arry's. The business has carefully restored and integrated elements of the original brewery buildings, particularly in the upper level bar areas, allowing the venue to celebrate its historic character while offering a contemporary and welcoming hospitality experience.
