Description

Units 5-7 comprise an attractive ground floor retail unit within a characterful historic building. The accommodation extends to approximately 1,385 sq ft and benefits from a wide, highly visible frontage onto Buttermarket, making it well suited to retailers seeking strong presence. The unit offers flexible open-plan retail accommodation with access to staff facilities. Furthermore, the property forms part of a wider scheme to enhance the overall trading environment, driving footfall into The Buttermarket.

Location

The property is prominently positioned on Buttermarket/Middlegate in the heart of Newark town centre. This well-established retail location benefits from strong pedestrian footfall and close proximity to national and independent retailers, cafés, and leisure operators.

Newark benefits from excellent transport links, including a mainline railway station with direct services to London King's Cross.
