GENERAL DESCRIPTION

A large and adaptable retail premises positioned between two large national retailers in the centre of Stafford. The building is accessed via the pedestrianised Gaolgate Place with a large council run car park directly behind which services the north side of the town. The property comprises an open plan ground floor sales area and large sales/stockroom, loading bay with window frontage onto Gaolgate Place and side onto Mount Street. On the first floor are a range of stockrooms and staffrooms alongside staff toilets. The premises benefits from tiled flooring, suspended ceilings, recessed lighting at ground floor level, air conditioning, gas blow heater in stockroom, electric roller shutter and automatic doors to the frontage. Although previously used for retail purposes the property would suit a range of alternative uses (subject to planning where necessary) to possibly include restaurant/café bar, showroom or professional offices.

LOCATION

The property forms part of a modern retail dominated development in the pedestrianised part of the town centre and is positioned at the end of Princes Street on Hunters Row and is in-between national retailers Home Bargains and Iceland and is a short walk to the Sheridan Centre Car Park. Stafford.
