NEW LUXURY COMMUNITY ON BRIDGE ROAD IN HOBE SOUND WOULD BE WORTH OVER $1.5 BILLION

- Private Community – Development of Atlantic Fields, an exceptional private club and community with Discovery Land Company, consisting of just 317 homes and producing approximately $20 million per year in tax revenue for Hobe Sound
- Private Club – Golf course designed by world-renowned architect Tom Fazio will include a carefully chosen palette of native Florida vegetation to enhance and preserve the natural setting
- Maximum Open Space – By limiting development to just 420 acres out of more than 1,500 acres comprising the total site
- Agricultural Preservation – Placing 800 acres of operational agricultural land, the current Becker Tree Farm, into a permanent agricultural easement
- Wetland Protection – Restoring approximately 125 acres of wetland and native habitats to improve the area's hydrological function and drainage
- Equestrian Facility – Donating a world-class equestrian facility, valued at nearly $1 million, to the Atlantic Ridge State Park to provide public access to the park
- Enhanced Access – Creating new access point to the Atlantic Ridge State Park's 5,800 acres of wetlands, uplands and wildlife habitat for public horseback riders, hikers and mountain bikers
- Train Station—Donating the historic Hobe Sound Train station to Martin county for relocation to the Hobe sound community Redevelopment Area
