PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

Across from Thomas Greene Park 267 Douglass Street offers a rare opportunity for tenants to establish a presence in the center of Gowanus, one of Brooklyn's most rapidly evolving neighborhoods. With the recent Gowanus Rezoning, the district is transitioning into a vibrant, mixed-use hub that combines modern residential development with ground-floor retail, cultural institutions, and creative office spaces.

Over the next several years, more than 8,500 new residential units and hundreds of thousands of square feet of retail are set to come online, creating a built-in customer and employee base for forward-thinking businesses. This growth is complemented by a wave of investment in public realm improvements, infrastructure, and waterfront access, solidifying Gowanus as a long-term destination for companies seeking an authentic, dynamic setting. Gowanus has already become a magnet for creative firms, design studios, technology startups, and makers who value its industrial character.

267 Douglass Street features excellent subway access via the F, G, and R lines, along with multiple nearby bus routes. It is also just minutes from Atlantic Terminal and the LIRR, with convenient access to major highways for seamless connectivity across Brooklyn and the greater NYC area
