±26,333 SF Industrial Facility situated on ±7.57 AC

PRIME INDUSTRIAL LOCATION

5455 District Blvd is strategically located within Bakersfield's Stockdale Industrial Park, one of the region's most established and functional industrial corridors. The property benefits from a central Bakersfield location with convenient access to major arterial routes, supporting efficient movement of goods throughout the Central Valley and beyond.

The surrounding area is characterized by a strong base of industrial users, including manufacturing, logistics, and service-oriented businesses, creating a synergistic environment for operations. Additionally, the property is positioned near key retail amenities such as Home Depot, Walmart, and Sam's Club, providing everyday convenience for employees and operational support.

While not immediately adjacent to a major freeway, the location still offers practical regional connectivity and remains a proven industrial submarket with sustained demand. The combination of established infrastructure, labor access, and proximity to core Bakersfield services makes this a highly functional location for a wide range of industrial users.

5455 DISTRICT BLVD | FOR SALE

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

The property consists of a ±26,333 SF industrial facility situated on ±7.57 acres, offering a rare combination of existing improvements and significant excess land. The low floor area ratio (FAR) creates substantial flexibility for expansion, outdoor storage, or future redevelopment, a key differentiator in today's constrained industrial land market.

The site is fully fenced and secured, with ample yard area capable of supporting logistics operations, fleet storage, or material staging. Infrastructure is a major strength, including ±3.8 MW of power, high-pressure gas service, and dual water sources, making the property particularly well-suited for energy-intensive or specialized industrial uses.
