LOCAL OVERVIEW

FOR LEASE
 TRIBUTE SHOPS MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT | WIXOM, MI

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Wixom, Michigan is an emerging retail investment market in western Oakland County, benefiting from its strategic location along the I-96 corridor and close proximity to Novi, Commerce Township, and Walled Lake. The city has grown to more than 17,400 residents, posting steady population gains since 2010 as new housing and infill development continue to come online. Median household income ranges from approximately $65,000 to $68,000, with a strong presence of professional, college-educated households—nearly 47% of residents hold a bachelor’s degree or higher—supporting consistent discretionary and service-oriented retail demand.

Retail fundamentals are strengthened by high-visibility corridors such as Grand River Avenue, Wixom Road, and Pontiac Trail, which capture both local traffic and commuter flow to Novi’s regional retail base. Per-capita retail sales exceed $52,000, underscoring strong consumer spending power for neighborhood and convenience retail formats. Recent new-construction retail and multifamily developments in nearby Novi—anchored by national tenants including Target, Sam’s Club, and Starbucks—are expanding the regional trade area and driving cross-shopping that benefits Wixom assets. Combined with rising home values exceeding $360,000 and comparatively attainable entry pricing, Wixom presents a compelling opportunity for investors seeking long-term retail stability and measured growth upside within Oakland County
