The Opportunity

330A 1st Street offers a compelling opportunity for a restaurant operator to establish a substantial presence in one of San Francisco's most dynamic mixed-use neighborhoods. Located in Rincon Hill / The East Cut, the property is surrounded by high-density residential towers and positioned near the downtown employment core, major transit connections, and the City's waterfront and entertainment destinations.

The approximately 3,300 SF restaurant space features an established commercial kitchen, wood-fired oven, bar, walk-in refrigeration, and multiple dining areas. This existing restaurant infrastructure provides an operator with a significant head start, potentially reducing the time and capital required to open while offering the scale and flexibility for a full-service restaurant or hospitality concept.
