BUSINESS OVERVIEW

HIGHLIGHTS

Liquor in the Woods is a well-established neighborhood tavern located in the heart of Iron River, Wisconsin. Known for its casual, welcoming atmosphere, the business features a full-service bar, pool table, gaming and an outdoor beer garden that provides additional seasonal seating and entertainment space.

The sale includes the business and real estate, along with a two-bedroom apartment above the tavern that provides an additional source of rental income or the option for owner occupancy. With an established local presence, straightforward operation and multiple uses within one property, Liquor in the Woods offers an approachable opportunity for an owner-operator looking to step into a classic Wisconsin tavern.

Located along US Highway 2, Iron River serves as a year-round hub for residents and visitors exploring northern Wisconsin. The surrounding lakes, forests, ATV and snowmobile trails, and outdoor recreation bring seasonal traffic to the area while a dependable local customer base supports the community year-round.

LOCATION HIGHLIGHTS

This bar is ideally positioned along US Highway 2, the primary east–west corridor through northern Wisconsin, offering consistent pass-through traffic connecting the communities of Superior, Ashland, and the greater Lake Superior region.

Located in the heart of Iron River, a welcoming Northwoods community in Bayfield County, the area blends small-town charm with year-round recreational appeal. The town serves as a hub for both locals and visitors, supported by nearby retail, dining, lodging, and essential services.

Surrounded by forests, lakes, and trail systems, the region attracts steady tourism driven by outdoor activities including fishing, boating, biking, hiking, ATV riding, and snowmobiling. The nearby Tri-County Recreational Corridor and access to the Chequamegon National Forest contribute to consistent seasonal traffic and repeat visitation.

Overall, the location offers a compelling combination of highway exposure, community connectivity, and tourism-driven traffic, positioning the bar to benefit from both steady year-round business and seasonal upside.

Hospitality Services Corp.
Effective July 1, 2016

DISCLOSURE TO CUSTOMERS

1 Prior to negotiating on your behalf the brokerage firm, or an agent associated with the firm, must provide you the
2 following disclosure statement:

3 DISCLOSURE TO CUSTOMERS You are a customer of the brokerage firm (hereinafter Firm). The Firm is either an agent
4 of another party in the transaction or a subagent of another firm that is the agent of another party in the transaction. A
5 broker or a salesperson acting on behalf of the Firm may provide brokerage services to you. Whenever the Firm is
6 providing brokerage services to you, the Firm and its brokers and salespersons (hereinafter Agents) owe you, the 7 customer, the following duties:

8 (a) The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.

9 (b) The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.

10 (c) The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions within a reasonable time if you request
11 it, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.

12 (d) The duty to disclose to you in writing certain Material Adverse Facts about a property, unless disclosure of the 13 information is prohibited by law (see lines 57-66).

14 (e) The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the Firm and its Agents will not disclose your 15 confidential information or the confidential information of other parties (see lines 24-40).

16 (f) The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property held by the Firm or its Agents.

17 (g) The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the 18 advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

19 Please review this information carefully. An Agent of the Firm can answer your questions about brokerage services,
20 but if you need legal advice, tax advice, or a professional home inspection, contact an attorney, tax advisor, or home
21 inspector.

22 This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for information only. It is a plain
23 language summary of the duties owed to a customer under section 452.133(1) of the Wisconsin statutes.

24 CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS The Firm and its Agents will keep confidential any information given to the
25 Firm or its Agents in confidence, or any information obtained by the Firm and its Agents that a reasonable person
26 would want to be kept confidential, unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize the Firm to 27 disclose particular information. The Firm and its Agents shall continue to keep the information confidential after the 28 Firm is no longer providing brokerage services to you.

29 The following information is required to be disclosed by law:

30 1. Material Adverse Facts, as defined in Wis. Stat. § 452.01(5g) (see lines 57-66).

31 2. Any facts known by the Firm or its Agents that contradict any information included in a written inspection
32 report on the property or real estate that is the subject of the transaction.

33 To ensure that the Firm and its Agents are aware of what specific information you consider confidential, you may 34 list that information below (see lines 36-40). At a later time, you may also provide the Firm or its Agents with other 35 information you consider to be confidential.

57 DEFINITION OF MATERIAL ADVERSE FACTS

58 A "Material Adverse Fact" is defined in Wis. Stat. § 452.01(5g) as an Adverse Fact that a party indicates is of such 59 significance, or that is generally recognized by a competent licensee as being of such significance to a reasonable
60 party, that it affects or would affect the party's decision to enter into a contract or agreement concerning a transaction
61 or affects or would affect the party's decision about the terms of such a contract or agreement.

62 An "Adverse Fact" is defined in Wis. Stat. § 452.01(1e) as a condition or occurrence that a competent licensee
63 generally recognizes will significantly and adversely affect the value of the property, significantly reduce the structural
64 integrity of improvements to real estate, or present a significant health risk to occupants of the property; or information
65 that indicates that a party to a transaction is not able to or does not intend to meet his or her obligations under a
66 contract or agreement made concerning the transaction.
