AREA OVERVIEW

Located in the heart of Central Maine, Augusta has been the capital since 1827. The Capitol Building is the centerpiece for this special City. Situated on both sides of the Kennebec River, Augusta is the center of employment, commerce and service for Central Maine and is the seat of state and county government. Throughout its history, Augusta has been a frontier trading place, an inland shipping port, a center for publishing and manufacturing, and now a hub for post-secondary education and healthcare.

Just 3.5 hours north of Boston, Augusta is ideally positioned between two of Maine's largest cities, Portland (one hour to the south) and Bangor (one hour to the north). The fact that 70% of Maine's population (900,000 people) can reach the city in less than two hour's drive attests to Augusta's convenient and central location. The Central Maine Region is known nationally for its vast array of recreational offerings. The Upper Kennebec and Moose River Valleys offer incomparable opportunities for hiking, bicycling, canoeing, kayaking, whitewater rafting, fishing, hunting, cross-country skiing, snowmobiling and fall foliage viewing.

The subject property is ideally positioned along busy Western Avenue, the primary thoroughfare for East/West travel between I-95 and the heart of Downtown Augusta. Situated on the east end of this stretch, Capitol Heights Center benefits from strong traffic counts and easy access from hundreds of nearby rooftops. This center particularly shines given the hub of daytime commerce located nearby. It is just steps to the Maine State Capitol, the State Office Building & Parking Garage, and hundreds of thousands of square feet of proximate professional office space anchored by various state departments, as well as related and private sector industries. The mixed-use nature of the center is designed to complement all the amenities the site has to offer. The extended stay hotel provides convenient lodging for all travelers, particularly legislators & lobby officials. The new apartment complex offers 58 new housing units over first floor commercial space ideal for retail, office, or amenity uses. The front of the site provides ideal opportunities for retail and medical users to capitalize on the access, population, and daytime traffic.

Augusta takes its place as one of Maine's largest and most active retail areas. The Capital City trails only Portland and Bangor in retail sales. The expansive Marketplace at Augusta features more than 20 nationally known retailers. Other large shopping centers include the Turnpike Mall and Shaw's Plaza. Augusta also boasts a wide network of small to mid-size specialty retailers.
