INTRODUCTION

Rosely Country House Hotel offers a fantastic B-listed Baronial Victorian Hotel on an impressive plot offering an abundance of period features and charm. This is an incredible opportunity to purchase this hotel which has been owned by the same family for over 40 years. The hotel also hosts extensive staff accommodation and a separate owners house.

The property itself sits on a prominent position, as you enter the town, near the Royal Marines Condor. The village is a well-established tourist location less than a two hour drive from Edinburgh and 30 minute drive from Dundee. There is also excellent transport links with the rest of Scotland.

The hotel offers 14 spacious en-suite letting rooms, all with their own charm and character. On the ground floor the property host a Bar lounge, a dining room, games room, guests lounge and a orangery. The hotel would benefit from some level of redevelopment and modernisation to bring it up to a boutique hotel level. There is a 3 bedroom staff accommodation at the end of the hotel and a separate 4 bedroom owners house on the site incorporated into the old water tower.

The property is a traditional stone built Charming Victoria period home construction built in 1845, over two floors, under a multi-pitched slate-covered roof. The hotel is curved in shape with balconies and turrets. The property also hosts a glass orangery to the rear which could be utilised for events.

The location of the property is shown on the appended plan.
