Description

10 Jamestown Road is a modern, mixed use building, arranged over five floors providing four self-contained ground floor retail units, first, second and part third floor fitted office space and residential accommodation to the remaining upper floors. The office accommodation benefits from a separate entrance which has recently been refurbished. The second floor, totalling 3,070 sq ft, is available on a new lease. The office benefits from several meeting rooms and private offices ready for occupation. The building itself is a 5-minute walk from Camden Town Station with easy connection to King's Cross, The West End and The City.

Location

Nestled in the heart of Camden, Jamestown Road benefits from excellent foot traffic and proximity to Camden Town Station (Northern Line). Camden Town boasts a rich and diverse cultural heritage and has grown into a well-established business hub, attracting global names such as Dr. Martens. The area buzzes with energy, offering a vibrant mix of retail, leisure, and food & beverage options that cater to every need throughout the day and into the night. At the heart of Camden lies the iconic Camden Market, home to over 1,000 distinctive shops, stalls, bars, and cafés. This dynamic destination is curated by the same investor behind the transformative Hawley Wharf development a 550,000 sq ft scheme that further enhance the Camden Lock area. Hawley Wharf blends retail, leisure, dining, residential, and office spaces, with anchor tenants including Curzon cinemas, flexible workspace provider LABS, and serviced apartment brand STAY.
