DEWEY'S BAKERY — EST. 1930

Founded more than 90 years ago in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Dewey's Bakery has long been part of family celebrations and everyday moments. The company produces premium soft baked cookies, cookie thins, and savory crackers inspired by authentic bakery flavors, while also serving as a leading manufacturer of custom-branded products for major U.S. food retailers. Dewey's additionally operates several retail bakeries in the Winston-Salem area with deep local roots.

In October 2020, Eurazeo Brands made a $25 million minority investment in Dewey's Bakery. Chairman Scott Livengood, a Winston-Salem resident, remains the majority shareholder.

GROWTH CATALYSTS:

- Recently won distribution in >2,000 Albertsons stores
- Customer lists include Trader Joes, Walmart, and Costco

DEWEY'S HIGHLIGHTS

- Since opening in 1930, Dewey's has been baking traditional favorites. These classics are made in the homemade tradition with a centuries-old recipe from the ancient region of moravia.
- In 1992 Dewey's Bakery expanded, creating Salem Baking Company to focus on national distribution of their Moravian Spice Cookies.
- In the last 30 years, Salem Baking has added additional artisan products including Classic Southern Cheese Straws, Cheese Biscuits, and Shortbread Cookies.
- Their Moravian Cookies are known to many as "the world's thinnest cookie" and were selected by O: The Oprah Magazine to be featured on the coveted "O List".

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Winston-Salem is located in the Piedmont Triad region of North Carolina about 100 miles west of Raleigh and 80 miles northeast of Charlotte. It is Forsyth County's largest city and currently the fifth largest city in the state. Called the "Twin City" for its dual heritage and "City of Arts and Innovation" for its dedication to fine arts and research, Winston-Salem, is home to multiple reputable employers in the financial industry. Although the city has traditionally been associated with the textile and tobacco industries, Winston-Salem has recently transformed into a leader in the nanotech, high-tech and bio-tech fields. Winston-Salem is home to a number of colleges and universities including Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem State University, UNC School of the Arts, Salem College, and Forsyth Tech Community College.
