INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

EXCELLENT LOCATION

The property is in downtown Barrie, Ontario, a picturesque, year-round recreational destination on Kempenfelt Bay just off Lake Simcoe. It is famous for its stunning waterfront, active arts, and culture scene (including Kempenfest). It acts as a major gateway to ski resorts and cottage country while being a growing commuter city on Hwy 400 just an hour north of Toronto.

PREMIUM FRONTAGE

The premium .256-acre property has excellent corner frontage in downtown Barrie, at the 3-way intersection of Bayfield Street and Colliers Street inclusive of their own dedicated dual access parking lot from Bayfield Street through to Clapperton Street.

TENANT

Royal Bank of Canada [RBC] was founded in 1865 in Halifax. RBC is the #1 bank in Canada www.rbcroyalbank.com, and has been a longstanding tenant since 1971 with a remaining term until October 31, 2027, plus 1 x 3-year option. It is consistently ranked among the top 10-25 largest banks globally by assets and trades as TSX:RY and NYSE:RY.

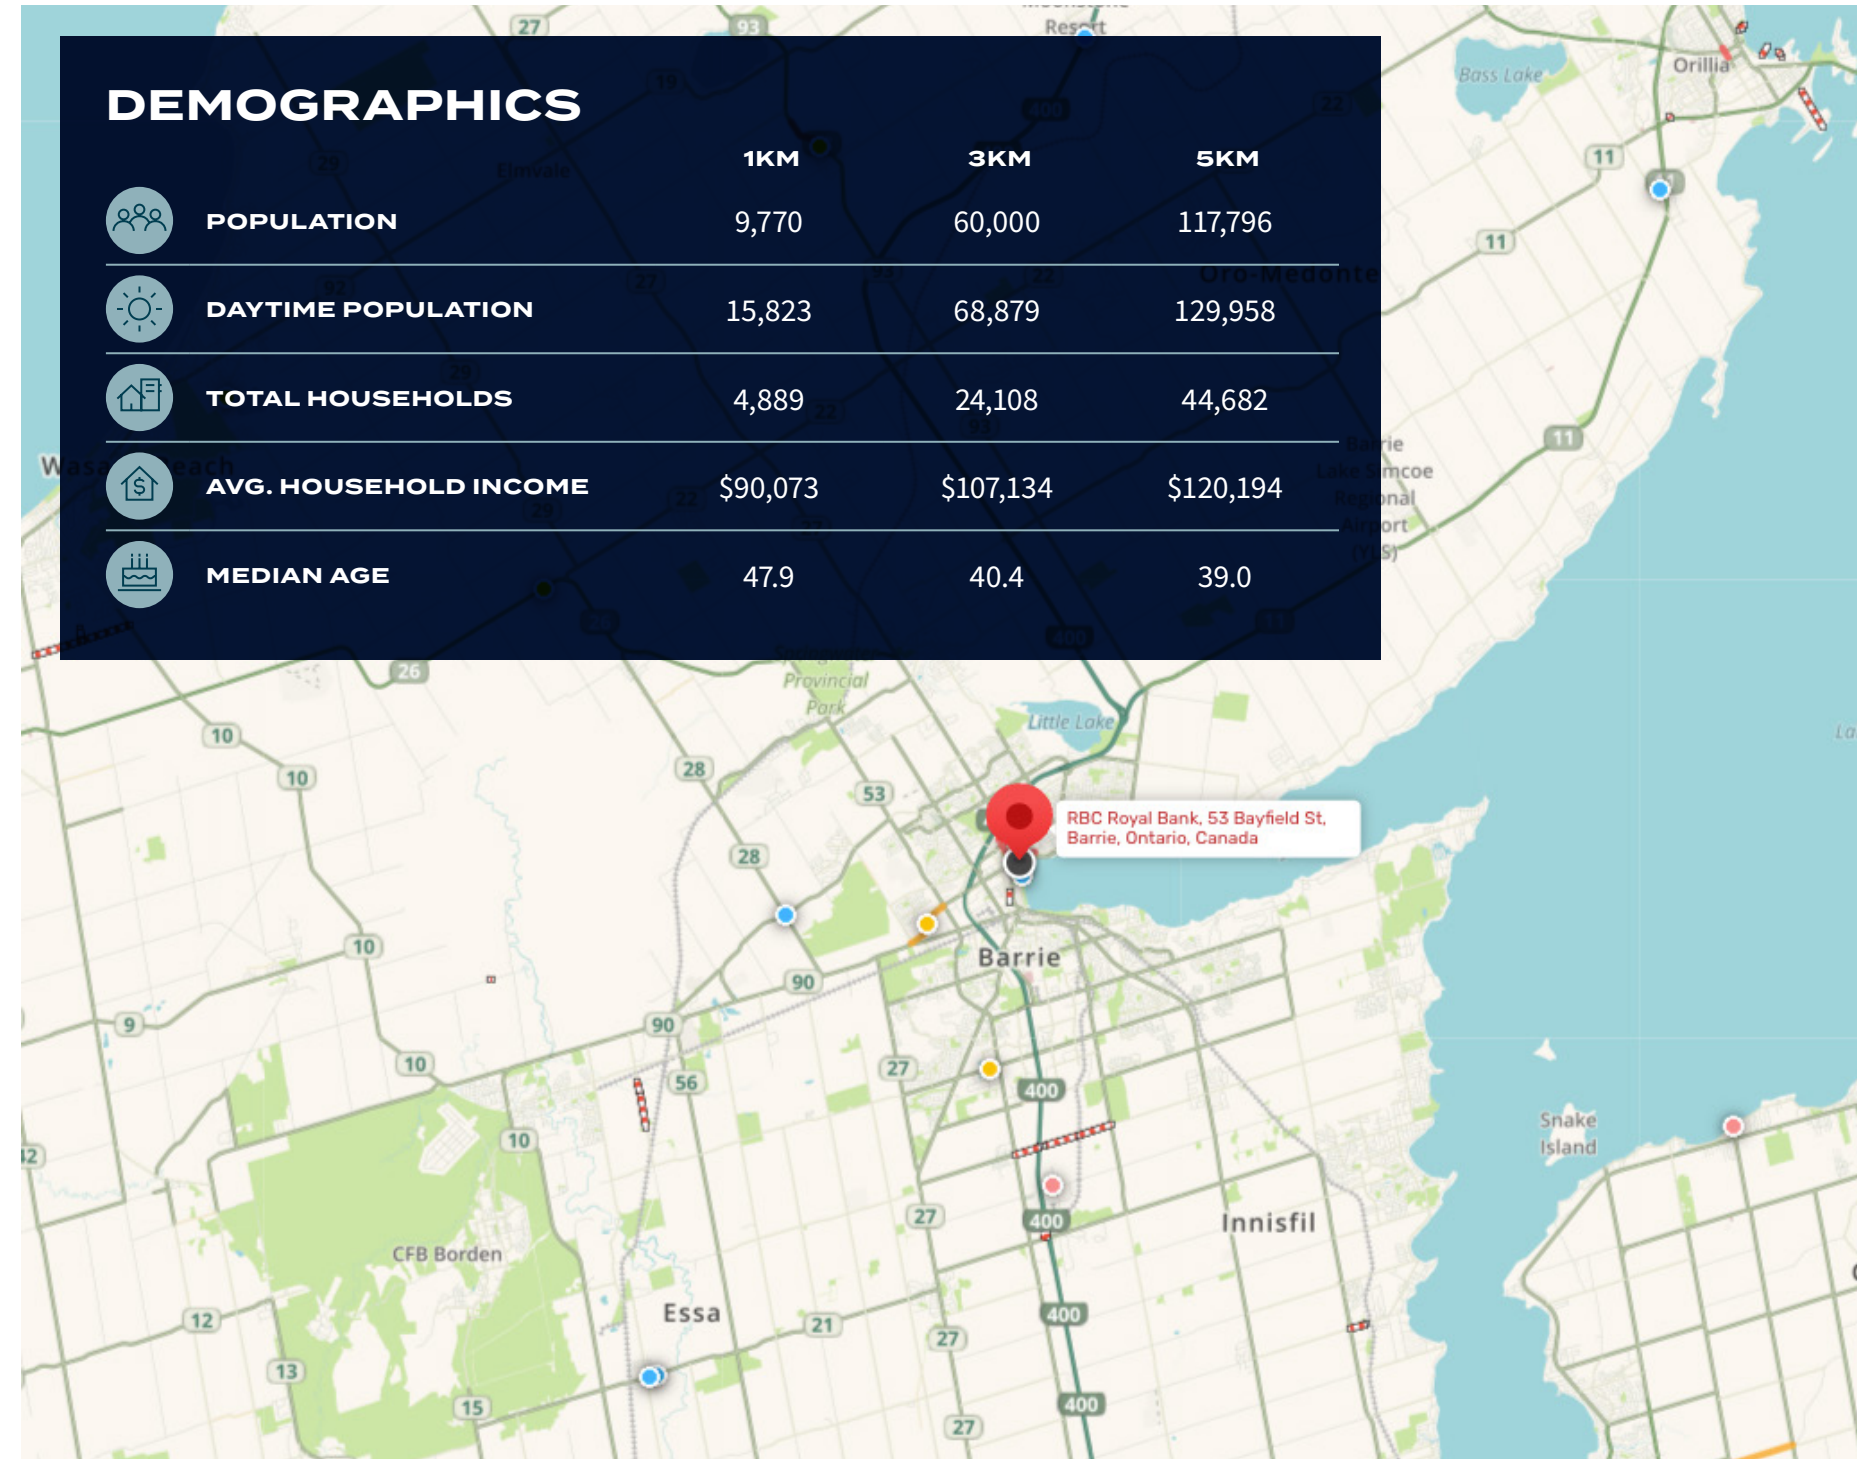

URBAN GROWTH CENTRE

Barrie is in the Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe, as a Simcoe Sub-area. Barrie is identified as a principal primary settlement area with Downtown Barrie as the only Urban Growth Centre. The Growth Plan forecasts a population of 253,000 by the year 2041.

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Barrie's downtown City Centre, featuring specialty shops and boutiques, unique dining experiences, parks, beaches and more — all surrounded by beautiful historic buildings and more than five kilometres of waterside scenery. Major destinations nearby include Barrie City Hall, Barrie Courthouse, MacLaren Art Centre, Heritage Park, Barrie Bus Terminal, City of Barrie Marina, Centennial Park, and many more.

Barrie is home to a quickly growing population, one of the fastest in Canada. Over 56,000 residents live within a 3 km radius of the site. This population has an average household income of $101,966. There are two large condominium developments in preconstruction both less than 400 metres away which will further increase this population, along with an abundance of planned developments in close proximity.
