Description

33 & 34 Park Place is a prominent semi-detached period building, providing modern office accommodation in Cardiff City Centre.

The property has an attractive and well-maintained external facade, and internally has been tastefully modernised, while retaining many of the existing period features.

The accommodation is arranged over lower ground, ground, first and second floors, and is predominantly cellular in configuration.

The specification includes: High ceilings, Kitchen, WC's, Carpeted floors, Original features, Intercom

Location

The property benefits from excellent public transport connections, located less than a 10-minute walk from Queen Street, and 20 minutes from Cardiff Central station. In addition, the property is located near many stops on the City Centre bus network.

The building overlooks Cardiff Museum and the Gorsedd Gardens, with City Hall on the next block.

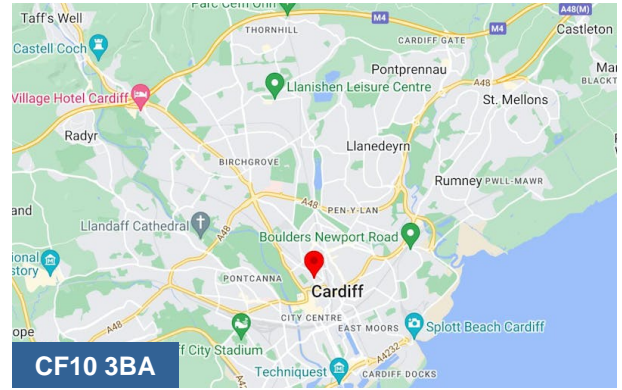

There are numerous amenities and green spaces on the doorstep, including a variety of restaurants, bars and coffee shops.
