OFFERING OVERVIEW

The Finem Group at Meybohm Commercial is pleased to exclusively present 121 Trotter Industrial Lane, a ±108,028 SF industrial complex situated on ±13.4 acres in Saluda, SC. This three-building asset offers functional warehouse and manufacturing space with a combination of dock-high and drive-in loading, heavy power, and ample land for circulation or storage.

The main structure spans ±84,000 SF with clear heights of 24' in most areas and portions reaching up to 28'. Two additional structures add ±13,350 SF and ±10,680 SF, each offering segmented spaces with 10'-16' clear heights. In total, the site includes six dock doors and five drive-in doors, accommodating a variety of logistics and production workflows. The shell space offers ±15,000 SF of customizable floorplate for potential buildout.

All buildings are constructed with masonry walls and metal roofing in good condition. The ±13.4-acre parcel offers a mix of gravel and dirt drives to support truck traffic, outdoor storage, or expansion. Zoned High Industrial, this site is suitable for warehousing, light manufacturing, and distribution. Existing short-term tenancy provides holding income while leaving room for user occupancy or lease-up strategies.

Positioned to serve the Augusta, Columbia, and Newberry markets, this property presents a unique opportunity for scale-driven operators or investors seeking access to multiple Southeast metros in a value-oriented corridor. The location also benefits from high traffic exposure due to common cut-through routes between I-20 and I-26, offering excellent visibility and incidental traffic from drivers avoiding direct access to Columbia.

LOCATION SUMMARY

- Located at 121 Trotter Industrial Lane in Saluda, SC, this industrial site offers convenient access to three major Southeast markets—Augusta, Columbia, and Newberry. Positioned just off Johnston Highway (SC-121), the property is well-situated for regional distribution and logistics, with direct routes to I-20 and I-26 within a 28.70–45 minute drive.
- The property sits along a common bypass route used by drivers moving between I-20 and I-26 without entering the Columbia metro area. This natural traffic pattern results in consistent cut-through activity past the site, enhancing both visibility and logistical efficiency.
- Though outside centralized industrial parks, the area supports active warehousing and light manufacturing, offering favorable cost structures and flexibility for large-parcel users. The ±13.4-acre site allows for truck maneuvering, outside storage, or future expansion, making it well-suited for businesses that require both building scale and land availability.
- This corridor provides access to key labor pools across Edgefield and Aiken Counties while maintaining strategic proximity to the CSRA's manufacturing and logistics hubs. With limited inventory of ±100,000 SF sites in the region, 121 Trotter Industrial Lane offers a compelling combination of infrastructure, scale, and access.

WHY? SALUDA

OVERVIEW

Saluda, South Carolina offers a strategic balance of rural affordability and logistical connectivity. With a strong agricultural base, proximity to major industrial corridors, and access to a growing regional workforce, Saluda is poised for smart, sustainable development. Its low cost of living, available land, and central location between Columbia, Greenville, and Augusta make it a compelling choice for businesses seeking expansion without the overhead of major metros. Local government is pro-growth and responsive, while regional infrastructure continues to improve.

AGRICULTURAL HUB

Saluda has long been recognized as a cornerstone of South Carolina's agricultural economy. The area's fertile land supports thriving poultry, cattle, and row crop operations. Agribusiness and food processing companies benefit from low land costs, favorable climate conditions, and a workforce with generational experience in production and logistics.

WELL-CONNECTED RURAL ADVANTAGE

Saluda sits within an hour's drive of Columbia, Augusta, and Greenwood. It is accessible via SC Hwy 121, SC Hwy 39, and US Hwy 378, with direct trucking access to I-20 and I-26. This puts Saluda within reach of:

- Ports of Charleston & Savannah (2–2.5 hours)
- Columbia Metropolitan Airport (CAE)
- CSX and Norfolk Southern rail lines (within 28.70 miles)

PRO-GROWTH ECONOMIC CLIMATE

Saluda County offers a competitive tax environment and is part of the Southern Carolina Alliance, which promotes industrial and commercial investment across rural South Carolina. Industrial sites and commercial parcels are available with utilities in place, and the County supports expedited permitting for qualifying projects.

HEALTHCARE

Saluda offers some of the lowest land and development costs in the state. Commercial and industrial users benefit from:

- Below-average property tax rates
- Inexpensive utility infrastructure (electricity, water, gas)
- Streamlined entitlements and zoning flexibility

COMMUNITY-FOCUSED GROWTH

With a population known for civic engagement, strong schools, and local leadership invested in smart development, Saluda is ideal for small to mid-sized companies looking to scale in a welcoming environment. The town features a historic downtown square, new housing developments, and access to regional labor markets without metro-area congestion or pricing.
