- Town of Prosper Update

Highlights the town's top ranking in the ITT Community Challenge for small cities, earning over 2.9 million points and receiving a grant for healthy school initiatives. It also showcases robust commercial and residential development, with nearly $200 million in total construction valuation across 146 new and pending business activities.

- Work begins on PGA development in Frisco to create 'hybrid' golf course

In 2019, construction began on the PGA of America's new headquarters in Frisco, Texas, featuring a unique hybrid golf course designed for both championship play and public use. The development marked a major milestone in transforming Frisco into a premier golf destination and economic hub.

- 5 Reasons Prosper is One of DFW's Fastest Growing Cities

It seems the fastest-growing cities in North Texas are pushing farther towards the outskirts of the Dallas Fort Worth region. The Dallas Business Journal took a look at cities with more than 10,000 people in the latest U.S. Census Bureau estimates and determined the change in population between 2013 and 2017. In the past five years, the suburbs have grown as much as one and half times their original size. Prosper is one of them.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyer, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- * A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- * A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client)

- * Put the interest of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- * Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker; Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- * Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR THE OWNER (SELLER LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR THE BUYER TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold and underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary.

A broker who acts as a intermediary"

- * Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- * May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner or buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- * Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any coincidental information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interest of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTE ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.

Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
