Location

Well positioned for everyday convenience

Located on one of Lévis' busiest corridors, at the intersection of Guillaume-Couture boulevard and Saint-Omer street, this prominent office building offers exceptional visibility in the heart of one of the city's most established business districts. Lévis is home to major employers, a dynamic labour market and a growing business community.

The property is located just minutes from Desjardins' headquarters, Lévis Golf Club, the Lévis hospital, and a wide range of retail, dining and everyday services. It also offers abundant free surface parking, providing a significant advantage for both employees and visitors.

Combining excellent visibility, convenient access and a high-quality business environment, the property offers an ideal address for corporate occupiers seeking a strong professional presence and an optimal workplace.

Lévis

A leading economic hub in Canada

Lévis stands out as one of Canada's strongest business environments, having maintained the lowest unemployment rate among the country's 50 largest cities since 2006. This sustained performance reflects the city's economic vitality and the availability of a large, highly skilled workforce.

Ideally located at the gateway to the Chaudière-Appalaches and Capitale-Nationale regions, Lévis offers a highly advantageous geographic location. Highways 20 and 73 provide direct access to the Québec City region, Ontario, Atlantic Canada and the United States, facilitating business operations and logistics.

Lévis also offers competitive operating costs, with one of the lowest corporate tax rates in the country, competitive construction and leasing costs, and an attractive wage structure. Its diverse industrial base, ranging from food processing to industrial technologies, combined with the emergence of the knowledge economy, makes it an environment that fosters innovation and growth.
