Property & Area Details

Location Overview

Centralia, Illinois, is a regional hub in south-central Illinois spanning Marion, Clinton, Jefferson, and Washington counties, with a population of roughly 12,000 residents. The community benefits from its strategic location along Illinois Route 161 and U.S. Route 51, offering convenient access to Interstate 57 and Amtrak service connecting to Chicago and Carbondale. Centralia is supported by a mix of industries including healthcare, education, manufacturing, and retail, and is home to St. Mary's Hospital, Kaskaskia College, and several major employers. Residents and visitors enjoy recreational amenities such as Lake Centralia and Foundation Park, while the historic downtown and Fairview Park Plaza serve as retail and service hubs. While the area has experienced some population decline, Centralia continues to function as an important service and retail destination for surrounding smaller communities.
