7224 Curragh Avenue

Burnaby, BC

Property Highlights

Built in 1979, the building is a concrete-block and wood/steel office warehouse with two grade level loading doors with terrific site and street parking.

Existing Lease/ Net Operating Income

The existing lease in place is with Airstream Heating and Air Conditioning Inc. at a current rent of $20 per SF per annum ($156,000) until expiry at December 31st, 2028 with no right of renewal.

Building

The site is improved with an approximately 7,800 SF office/warehouse building constructed in 1979 and renovated in 2012. The building has been constructed on a reinforced concrete foundation using a combination of structural wood and structural steel frame with concrete block walls and corrugated metal panel finishes; windows are double pane in metal casements; ground floor windows have an anti-shatter glass coating. The roof is constructed of open-web steel trusses and corrugated metal roof decking with a new torch on covering. The warehouse has a clear height of 18 feet and is serviced by two drive-in doors, as well as an inground loading dock which services one of the two bay doors. The inground loading dock is currently accessed by parking on the neighbour private property. The office area is serviced by a rooftop HVAC system and the warehouse is heated by two gas-fired space heaters circulated by ceiling fans. The building is serviced by three-phase 200-amp/120-208-volt electrical service on one meter and has a security system with motion detectors.
