About Mesa

Sub-Market Overview

- Market Scale & Position - Mesa is Arizona's third-largest city with 523,000+ residents within the 5.2 million-person Phoenix-Mesa-Scottsdale MSA. Median household income is $83,458 (2025 estimated), with average household income of $105,861. Phoenix-Mesa-Chandler employment grew 0.43% in 2025, supporting continued household additions and retail demand across value to premium segments.
- Economic Strength & Retail Performance - Mesa's diversified economy is anchored by aerospace (Boeing), healthcare (Banner Health), technology, and education (ASU Polytechnic campus). International investment in advanced manufacturing and semiconductors drives retail vibrancy. Major developments include the multi-billion dollar Legacy Park mixed-use project, demonstrating strong investor confidence and transforming the retail landscape.
- Strategic Market Advantages - Loop 202, US 60, and Loop 101 provide exceptional connectivity and high traffic counts to retail corridors. Mesa attracts significant visitor traffic through tourism, spring training baseball, and ASU's Polytechnic campus (6,300+ students). Mesa Gateway Airport served over 2 million passengers in 2025, with ongoing runway and terminal expansions underway. Targeted commercial incentives position Mesa as a primary Phoenix metro growth node.
- Mesa combines established market stability with high-growth upside. Data from 2024-2025 confirms market expansion, diversification, and significant infrastructure investments enhancing its position as a dynamic destination
