Downtown LA Momentum

Strategic Location - Downtown Los Angeles Adjacent.

Positioned just south of Downtown Los Angeles, 2114 S. Hill St. sits at the convergence of two of DTLA's most dynamic commercial submarkets: South Park and the Fashion District. These districts anchor the city's cultural, retail, entertainment, and commercial growth — offering tenants direct access to DTLA's strongest activity zones.

Located moments from South Park, one of Downtown LA's most modern and fast-growing neighborhoods, known for its dense mix of residential towers, entertainment venues, and Class A commercial development.

Just east of South Park, the Fashion District remains a major commercial hub featuring wholesale, creative office, retail, production, and distribution uses. The Fashion District remains a vital part of the DTLA commercial ecosystem — supporting fashion manufacturing, showrooms, creative workspace, and adaptive reuse development.

The area maintains one of the lowest availability rates in the urban core, with a 24.9% total availability rate and an average asking rent of $3.74 PSF Full Service. It's competitive office fundamentals underscore growing tenant demand driven by proximity to LA Live, the Convention Center, new multifamily housing, and an increasingly walkable retail and dining scene.

This area also benefits from:

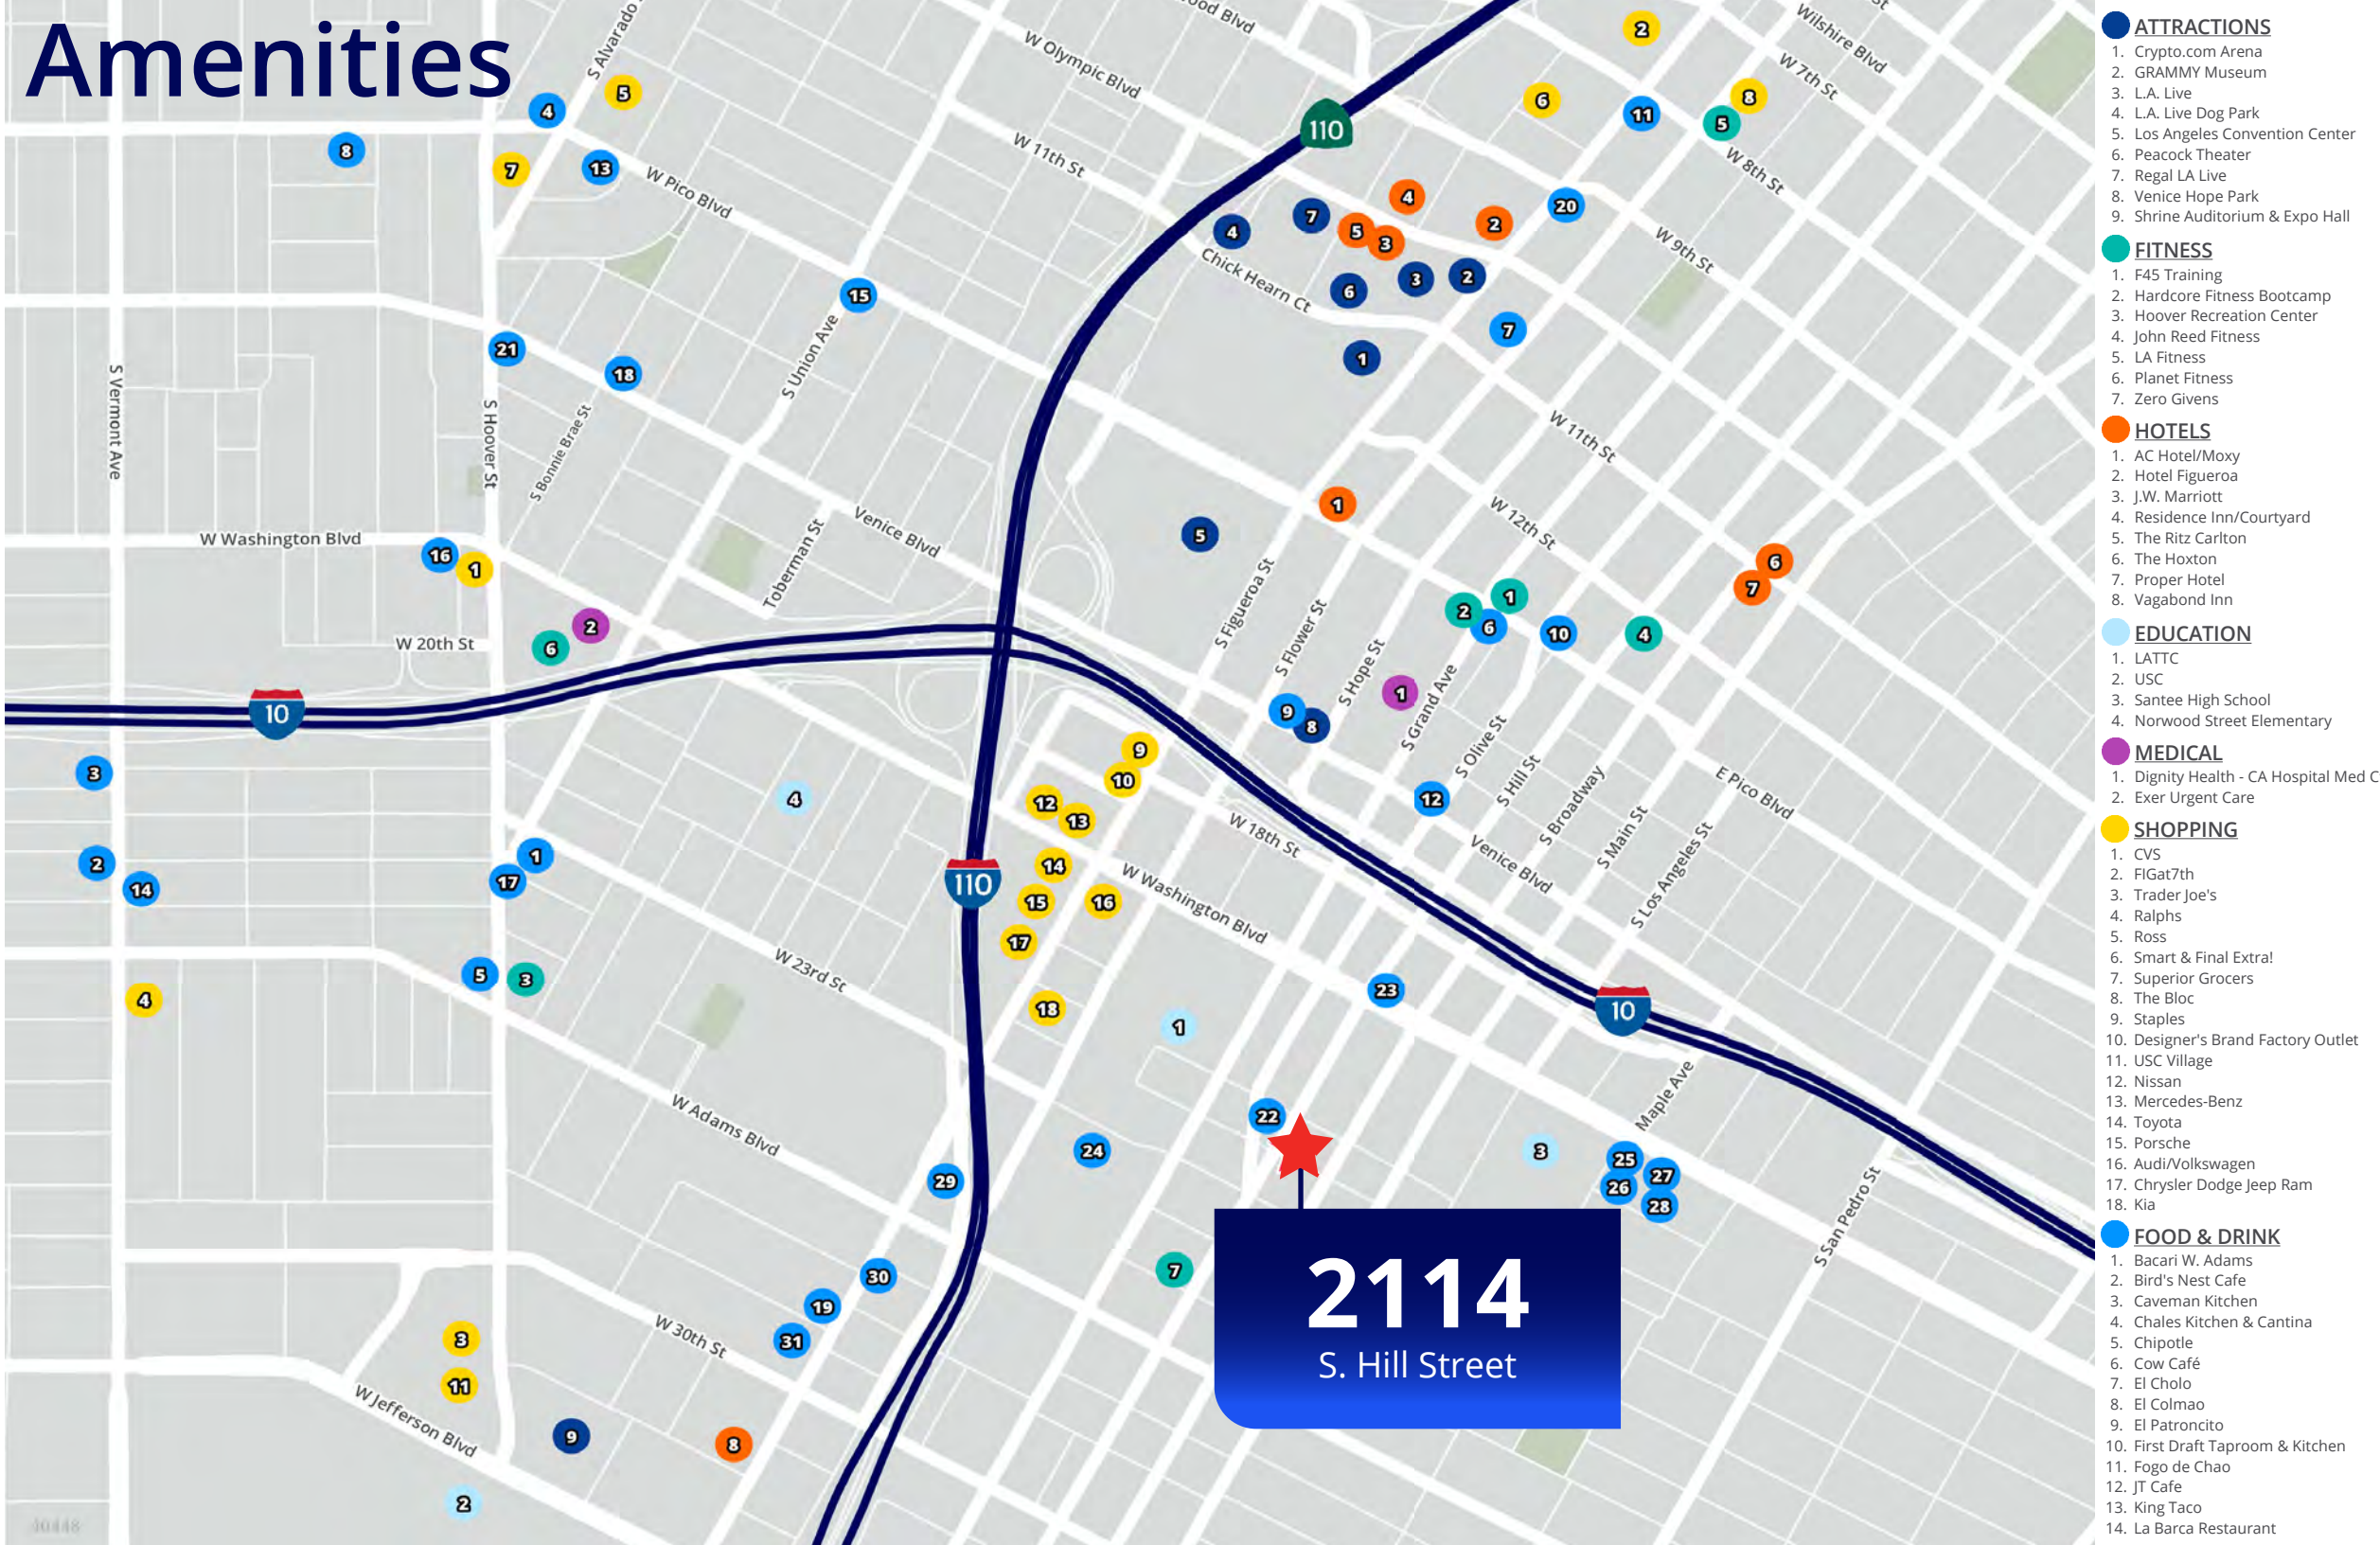

- ◆ Convenient connectivity to I-10, I-110, and Metro transit lines
- ◆ A dense daytime and residential population supporting service and commercial uses

Combined, these elements make the location highly attractive for office, creative, industrialflex, studio, or service-based tenants seeking an urban, well-located business environment with direct ties to Downtown's most active districts.
