PROPERTY AUCTIONS

LOCATION

Bo'ness is a small coastal town in the Central Scotland, and is located within the Falkirk council area. It lies approximately 8 miles east of Falkirk and 20 miles west of Edinburgh. Historically Bo'ness was known for coal mining and transporting trade along the Forth.

More specifically, the subjects are located on South Street at the corner of the junction where Main street meets North Street, in a prominent town centre location. South Street forms one of the main thoroughfares in Bo'ness.

FOR INDICATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a site of land for sale 82 South Street, Bo'ness extending to approximately 0.4 acres (0.1 hectares).

The site is rectangular in shape and is currently a mix of grass, forestry and rubble as the previous unit was demolished, which would require clearing. The site has excellent frontage and high visibility from the main road, situated in a prominent roadside location with a high volume of passing traffic.

There is no planning permission currently in place for the site. Accordingly, any purchaser seeking to develop or build on the land would be required to submit an appropriate planning application.

PLANNING

The site previously had planning permission agreed to build retail units and 11 residential flats in 2015. It is our understanding that the permission has now lapsed.

It is necessary that any interested party to carry out their own investigation and satisfy themselves in this regard.
