Spectacularly located in the heart of the Pearl District at NW 13th & NW Flanders St, and is immediately adjacent to one of Portland's most popular festive alleys.

A Portland hot spot for nearly two decades, the Pearl District is one of Portland's most popular neighborhoods where bars, restaurants, and galleries abound, and where lively activities occur as well. It's also a destination spot for great shopping with a multitude of stores from Athleta, lululemon, and Anthropologie to furniture favorites like Hive, The Joinery, and West Elm.

PEARL DISTRICT

Famous for its urban artistic charm, the Pearl District is chock full of shopping, art galleries, historic theaters, and idyllic parks.

TRANSIT

Portland Streetcar, TriMet buses, and MAX Light Rail make it easy to travel without a car.

SHOPPING

The Pearl District is a shopper's paradise with a variety of local boutiques, local favorites like Powell's City of Books, and numerous big names stores like Athleta and Lululemon.

ART GALLERIES & THEATERS

From Portland Center Stage at the Armory, to museums and galleries, there are a multitude of things to see and do in the Pearl District.

PARKS

Parks like Jamison Square, Tanner Springs Park, and The Fields Park feature fountains, sitting areas, and lush green spaces.
