PROPERTY SUMMARY

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

881 Ridgewalk (the "Property") is a 9.6K SF, five-tenant retail center positioned at the front door of The Outlet Shoppes at Atlanta at the I-575/Ridgewalk Parkway interchange (Exit 9) in Woodstock, Georgia. Constructed in 2014 as part of the master-planned Ridgewalk commercial district, the Property occupies an entry-corner, outparcel-style position along the primary approach into a 370K SF outlet center featuring nearly 100 national brands — the closest outlet center to downtown Atlanta — with a 154K SF Costco anchoring the opposite side of the corridor.

The Property is 100% leased to a complementary, internet-resistant mix of national, franchise, and proven local operators: Marlow's Tavern, AT&T, Rock N Roll Sushi, Pigtails & Crewcuts, and SoHo Nail Bar. Four of the five tenants have operated at the Property since 2015–2016, evidencing roughly a decade of sustained sales performance across market cycles. The rent roll is anchored by Marlow's Tavern — an Atlanta-based, full-service tavern group representing 36.5% of GLA and 40.5% of base rent — committed through June 2035, while Rock N Roll Sushi executed a fresh 10-year lease in December 2024 running through 2034. All five leases are triple-net with pro-rata expense reimbursement, producing 2026 in-place NOI of $400,552 against a 6.5-year weighted average lease term, with 67% of base rent contractually committed beyond 2031.

PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

FRONT DOOR POSITION AT A DOMINANT REGIONAL DRAW

Marlow's Tavern — 36.5% of GLA and 40.5% of base rent — has operated at the Property since its 2015 opening and is committed through June 2035, evidencing more than a decade of proven sales performance at this location. Rock N Roll Sushi executed a new 10-year lease in December 2024, running through 2034.

100% LEASED TO A COMPLEMENTARY, INTERNET-RESISTANT MIX

Full-service dining (Marlow's Tavern), fast-casual dining (Rock N Roll Sushi), telecom retail (AT&T), and personal services (Pigtails & Crewcuts, SoHo Nail Bar) create a service- and experience-oriented tenant mix with daily-needs demand drivers that are insulated from e-commerce disruption.

EXPLOSIVE TRADE-AREA GROWTH

Woodstock's population has grown from approximately 23,900 (2010) to roughly 40,000 today, and the Ridgewalk corridor is absorbing hundreds of new residential units at The Heights at Ridgewalk and Sutton Row (290 units, delivering 2026–2027), part of the 200-acre Buice Lake master plan.

STAGGERED ROLLOVER PROFILE

Only one lease (AT&T, 17.7% of GLA) expires before 2031, providing near-term mark-to-market optionality while preserving durable term — 67% of base rent is contractually committed beyond 2031.

INFRASTRUCTURE TAILWINDS

CDOT and the City of Woodstock are converting the I-575/Ridgewalk Parkway interchange into a diverging-diamond configuration, expanding capacity at the Property's front door and preparing the corridor for continued commercial development.

ANCHORED BY LONG-TERM RESTAURANT COMMITMENT

Marlow's Tavern - 36.5% of GLA and 40.5% of base rent - has operated at the Property since its 2015 opening and is committed through June 2035, evidencing more than a decade of proven sales performance at this location. Rock N Roll Sushi executed a new 10-year lease in December 2024, running through 2034.

The Heights at Ridgewalk and Sutton Row (290 units, phasing through 2026-2027) are adding rooftops within walking distance as part of the 200-acre Buice Lake master plan, while GDOT converts the I-575 interchange to a diverging-diamond configuration.

WOODSTOCK, GA

Woodstock is one of metro Atlanta's most celebrated growth stories — population has climbed from roughly 23,900 in 2010 to approximately 40,000 today, supported by an award-winning walkable downtown, a diverse employment base across Cherokee and north Cobb counties, and sustained in-migration of high-income households. The City continues to invest in trails, parks, and roadway capacity — including the Ridgewalk interchange redesign, Noonday Creek Trail connections, and corridor intersection upgrades — reinforcing long-term demand for retail services along the I-575 spine.
