UP TO 10,008 RSF OF EXTRAORDINARY SPACE

JLL is pleased to present $\pm$ 4,249-10,008 RSF of extraordinary space on a studio lot. This opportunity is located at the Formosa South Building at The Lot, the historic grounds of the MGM and Pickford-Fairbanks Studios.

Within a fully creative campus-like environment, Formosa South presents unparalleled opportunities for multi-disciplinary collaboration between writers, producers, editors, artists and other members of the media community.

Neighboring tenants include HBO and HartBeat Productions. Combining work connections and personal pursuits, artistic license and marketing opportunities, and socialization with collaboration; Formosa South at The Lot is more than an office on a studio lot, it's a community.

SPACE TO CREATE

Production companies love the lifestyle of The Lot. Its walkable amenities and approachable size, not to mention its dynamic West Hollywood location, make it one of the most desirable locales for media companies in the greater Hollywood area.

THE LOT
AT FORMOSA

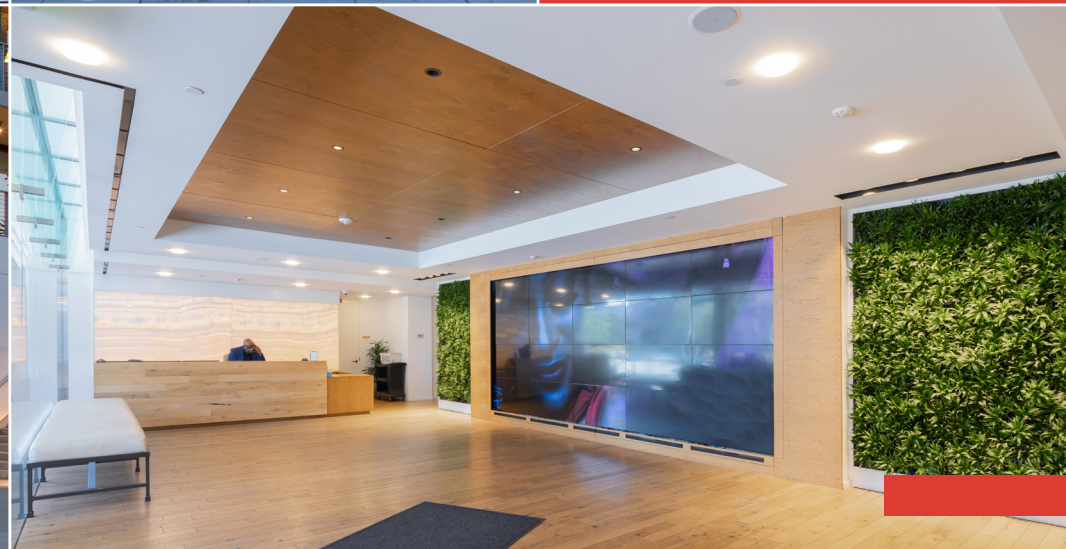

S O U T H

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks (pictured above) founded United Artists on The Lot, championing independent cinema and the first union for actors from within its walls.

West Side Story and Some Like it Hot were filmed here; while Live Nation and HartBeat are carrying on the innovative legacy.

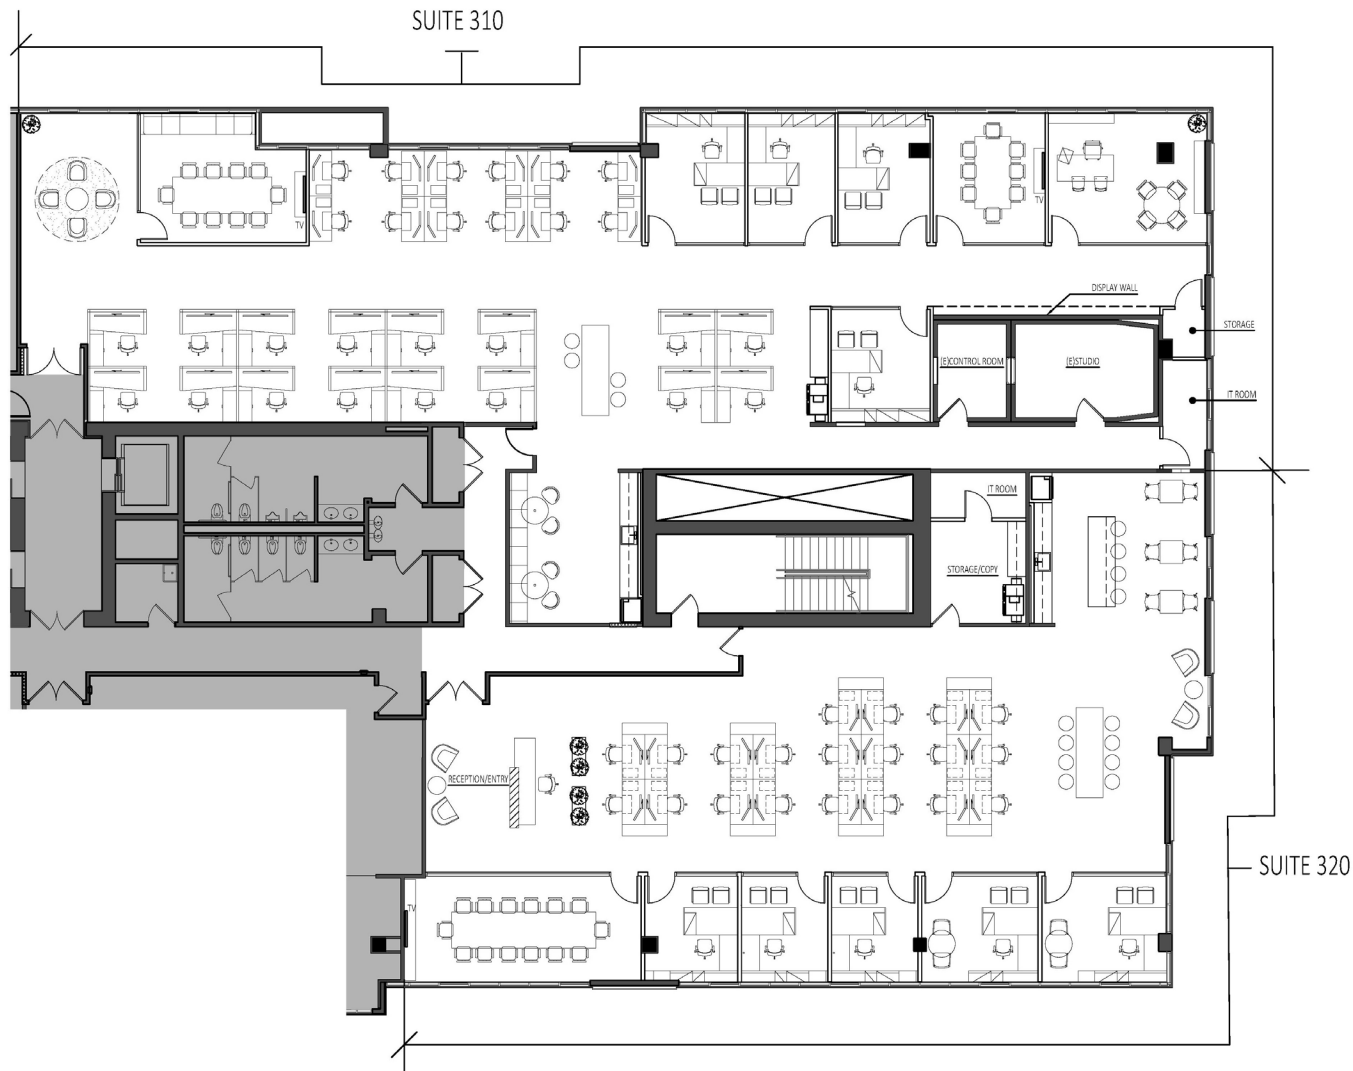

The Lot is a fully functioning studio lot, offering perimeter security unlike any other office campus, and a sense of arrival specific to Hollywood.
