Property Highlights

Formerly the long time home of the famous Martino's Bakery, 901 W Alameda was completely renovated in 2009 and repositioned for creative office and studio production space. The four unit building consists of approximately 44,924 RSF and sits on 72,314 SF in the heart of Burbank's thriving Media District. The converted manufacturing facility offers high ceilings, mezzanine office space with unique architectural details, heavy power and flexible layouts for a variety of uses.

- Prominent Burbank location on the corner of Main St & Alameda Ave
- Ideal for production / studio uses
- High ceilings with skylights, polished concrete floors, and the original terra cotta tiles
- Multiple Fiber Providers Serving the Building - including City of Burbank's Dark Fiber Network
