EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1775 Buffalo Road presents a fully leased industrial investment opportunity in Rochester's established west-side industrial corridor. The 11,700 SF building sits on 2.06 acres and offers a versatile layout with approximately 50% office buildout, supporting a wide range of service, distribution, and light manufacturing operations. Originally constructed in 1990, the property features 12'-15' clear heights, one dock-high door, and three drive-in doors, providing functional loading capabilities and operational flexibility for its tenant. Positioned directly on Buffalo Road with immediate access to I-490 and minutes from I-390 and the Greater Rochester International Airport, the property benefits from exceptional regional connectivity throughout the Rochester MSA. Located within a well-established industrial corridor, the asset offers investors stable occupancy in a market supported by strong industrial demand, access to a skilled workforce, and convenient transportation infrastructure serving Western New York.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Prime Location & Accessibility: Direct frontage on Buffalo Road with immediate access to I-490 and minutes to I-390, I-590, and the Greater Rochester International Airport, providing seamless regional and interstate connectivity across Western New York.

Expansive Space: Situated on 2.06 acres, the property offers valuable on-site parking, circulation, and potential outdoor storage capacity—an attractive feature in infill industrial locations.

Strategic Features: Approximately 50% office buildout creates a strong administrative presence, ideal for contractors, service-based operators, or flex users requiring a balance of professional office and warehouse functionality.

Industrial Infrastructure: 12'-15' clear heights, one dock-high door, and three drive-in doors support efficient loading and operational flexibility, reinforcing the asset's durability as an income-producing industrial investment.

Zoning Advantage: Industrial zoning within an established west-side corridor supports warehouse, service, flex, and light manufacturing uses—enhancing tenant versatility and long-term backfill strength.

ABOUT ROCHESTER, NY

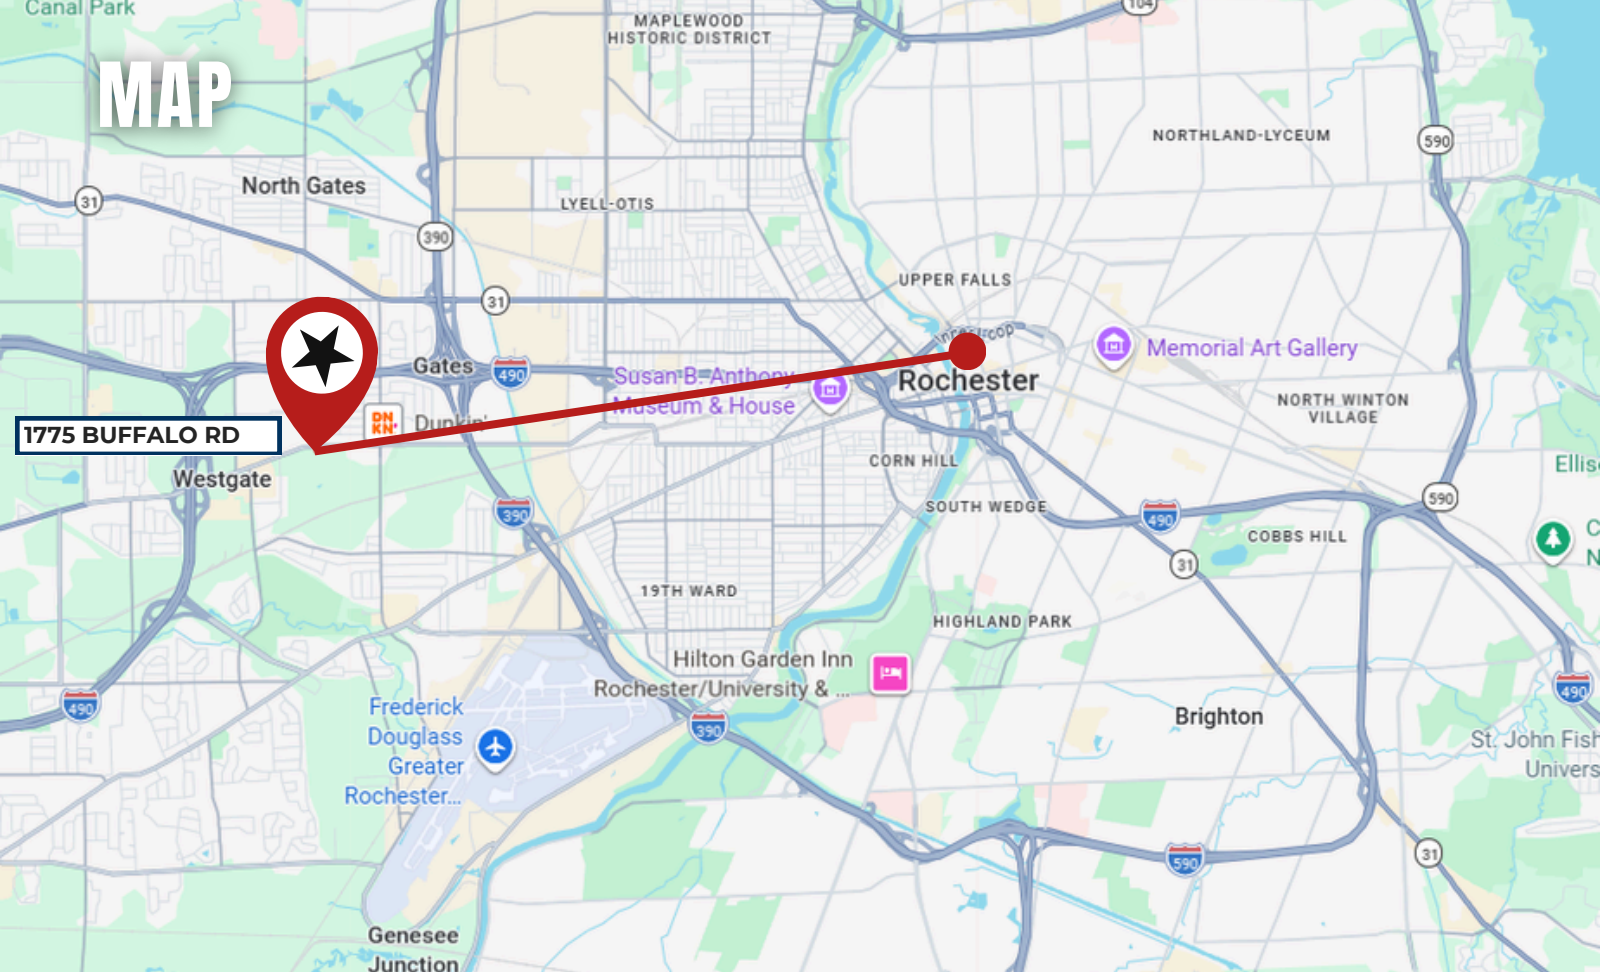

Rochester, NY is a strategically positioned Upstate New York market with a strong industrial foundation and growing advanced manufacturing base. Located along Lake Ontario and anchored by I-90 (NYS Thruway), I-390, and I-490, the region provides efficient access to Buffalo, Syracuse, Albany, and major Northeast markets, as well as cross-border connectivity to Canada.

The market benefits from a skilled labor pool supported by institutions such as the University of Rochester and RIT, along with continued investment in optics, photonics, food & beverage, and precision manufacturing. Compared to larger Northeast metros, Rochester offers lower operating costs, competitive real estate pricing, and available industrial inventory—making it attractive for distribution, manufacturing, and last-mile users.

With established industrial corridors, access to rail and air cargo via the Greater Rochester International Airport, and strong regional infrastructure, Rochester remains a stable and cost-effective market for commercial and industrial real estate investment.
