NEIGHBORHOOD HIGHLIGHTS

A Creative Enclave Along the LA River

Tucked between the LA River and the Glendale Freeway, Frogtown — officially Elysian Valley — has grown into one of Los Angeles' most distinctive creative neighborhoods. A long-time home to artist studios, fabrication shops, and design firms, the area now blends its working-industrial roots with a curated mix of independent cafés, breweries, restaurants, and wine bars. The 2.5-mile LA River Greenway runs the full length of the neighborhood, anchoring a daily rhythm of cyclists, runners, and locals moving between studios, storefronts, and the water's edge.

2860 Glenview Ave sits at the eastern end of this corridor, walkable to Frogtown's signature destinations and within easy reach of Atwater Village and Silver Lake.

● La Colombe Coffee

● Wax Paper Co.

● Salazar

● Lingua Franca

● Frogtown Brewery

● Frogtown Art Walk

- Just to the northwest are additional walkable amenities like Zebulon Cafe, 10 Speed Coffee, and Salazar.

LOCATION

↳ Set at the eastern edge of Frogtown along the LA River, 2860 Glenview Ave offers immediate access to the 2 (Glendale) and 5 freeways, and is within minutes of Atwater Village, Silver Lake, Glendale, Los Feliz, Echo Park, and Downtown Los Angeles. The property combines the quiet, low-density character of Elysian Valley with the connectivity of a true central LA location.
