PLATT PARK AREA OVERVIEW

RANKED #7 DENVER’S BEST NEIGHBORHOODS 2024

Not quite four miles south of downtown lies the charm-filled hamlet of Platt Park. Residents can easily bike, cab, or take the light rail (Louisiana Ave & Pearl St) into the city proper, but visit on a sunny summer weekend, and you’ll find yourself wondering why anyone would ever want to. Boasting Old South Pearl Street, a shopping and dining district full of unique boutiques and top-tier city eats, a border on Antique Row on South Broadway, and plenty of professional services, the area has just about everything an urban dweller could desire (walk score: 85), with the advantage of quieter streets with sizeable backyards. Mostly single-family homes dot treelined streets—primarily older homes that have been updated and/or added onto, although some newer, modern architecture can be found. While grand dame Washington Park is conveniently situated less than a mile away, the almost-four-acre James H. Platt Park is a gem in itself, with a well-kept playground that the many children in the neighborhood’s 3,000 households enjoy year-round.
