Yucca Valley lies in the Little San Bernardino Mountains at an elevation of 3,300 feet. Crisp air, starry skies and the incomparable beauty of the high desert help to create its unique charm and friendly atmosphere.

Yucca Valley is conveniently situated on CA State Highway 62, intersected by State Highway 247 and easily accessible to all of Southern California. As the gateway to the Joshua Tree National Park and the economic hub of the Morongo basin, Yucca Valley is renowned for its outdoor recreational opportunities, regional attractions, and host to the Yucca Valley Film Festival.

From the days of the Wild West to incorporation in 1991 and well into the 21st Century, Yucca Valley has experienced significant growth, but retained its rich Western heritage. Today, residents, businesses and visitors alike find Yucca Valley a highly rewarding place to live, work and play.

Town Hall consolidation project, all town administrative services will be moving to Town Hall in the coming years. Town Hall is West of this center. Job growth in Yucca Valley has increased 2.3% in the last year. Future job growth is predicted to reach 38.7% over the next ten years, higher than the US average of 33.5%.

Yucca Valley has long been recognized for its unparalleled quality of life, and strong consumer base, contributing to Yucca Valley's bright economic outlook. The town contains many national retailers located alongside thriving small businesses. Yucca Valley has a large growing, year round population and retail synergy!
