HIGHLIGHTS

- Location
69 Marlborough St., Portland, CT 06480
- Development Size
14.7 Acres
- Center Size
121,560 sf
- Area Description

Brainerd Place, is a mixed-use residential apartment/retail/medical/office development in Portland, Connecticut. The developers, Bright Ravens and DiMarco Group have begun construction of the Phase 1 of the 14.7-acre, 7-building project, including 385 residential apartment units, a Starbucks, the Sage House restoration (for future restaurant), and the Brainerd House restoration(for central clubhouse with cool amenities). The deluxe studio, one- and two-bedroom apartments mix with the retail and office to create a true town village feel in the center of town.

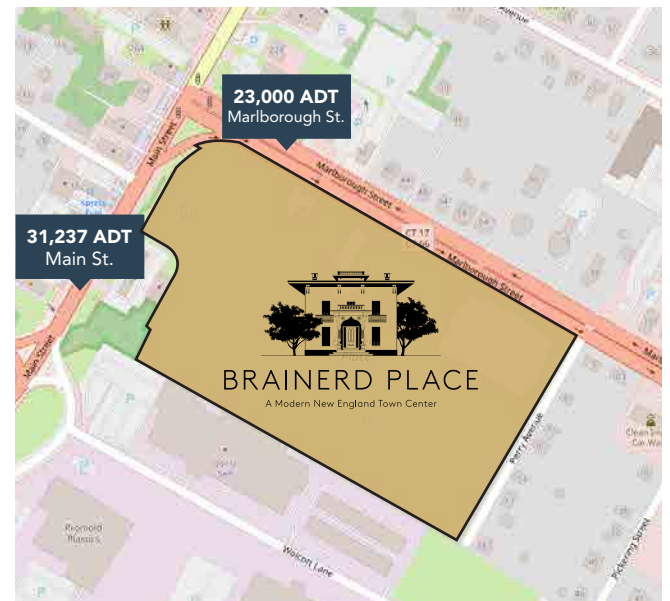

The property is situated along Main Street (Route 17A) and Marlborough Street (Route 66) just over the scenic Arrigoni Bridge, connecting Middletown to Portland. With Starbucks (a high traffic generator) already committed to Building D, the new space will be ideal for a variety of commercial tenants. Brainerd Place is prime for a variety of users seeking a high-end/unique experience in a community oriented development.

Brainerd Place is rooted in deep history and will combine both modern functionality and beautifully restored old-world design throughout the property.
