AREA HIGHLIGHTS

Greenway Plaza is Houston's premier city center business district, ideally positioned midway between Downtown and Uptown and with direct access to Interstate 69, as well as two of the city's most sought after residential neighborhoods: West University and River Oaks. The landmark campus, spanning 52 acres, 11 buildings and nearly five million square feet is considered a pioneering example of mixed-use development in the country and was the first project of its kind in Houston. Under Parkway's management and through reinvestment in its significant architecture and amenities, Greenway Plaza continues to stay on the forefront of the market with distinctive Class A office offerings in a pedestrian-oriented environment supported by acres of activated plaza, green and indoor gathering spaces, plus elevated food and beverage providers and a myriad of services spanning from coworking and conferencing to fitness and beauty. Adding further desirability to the setting are the wealth of amenities within Greater Greenway Plaza and the adjacent Upper Kirby District, including hotels, award-winning restaurants and nightlife, acclaimed retail, upscale multi-family, a 24-screen movie theater, weekly farmer's market and heavily programmed Levy Park.
