Neighborhood Overview

Oak Lawn, Illinois

Oak Lawn is a well-established, family-oriented suburb located approximately 12 miles southwest of downtown Chicago. The village sits at the crossroads of major regional corridors — 95th Street (IL Route 12/20), Southwest Highway, and Cicero Avenue — and benefits from direct access to Interstate 294 (Tri-State Tollway) and Interstate 55 (Stevenson Expressway). Home to Advocate Christ Medical Center, one of the largest Level I trauma centers in Illinois, Oak Lawn anchors the southwest suburbs as a healthcare, retail, and service destination. The community offers a dense, established rooftop base, a stable year-round consumer workforce, and one of the Chicago area's most active retail corridors along 95th Street.

Economy

- Established southwest-suburban commercial corridor anchored by 95th Street retail
- Advocate Christ Medical Center is the village's largest employer, driving consistent healthcare sector activity
- Top employment sectors: healthcare & social assistance, retail trade, and educational services
- 94.6% employment rate with a local workforce of 27,454 residents
- Median household income of $83,911 (2024); average household income of $109,917

Access & Transit
