PROPERTY OVERVIEW

PAC GARDEN
ASSETS

Offered for sale is a fee-simple industrial manufacturing and distribution facility located at 211 Fern Street, Santa Cruz, California, together with an established operating business platform. The property consists of an approximately  $\pm 4,500$  square foot purpose-built industrial facility situated on an approximately  $\pm 8,700$  square foot parcel, per county records.

The building has been fully improved with compliant infrastructure designed to support regulated manufacturing and distribution operations. Improvements include specialized production rooms, enhanced ventilation and HVAC systems, upgraded electrical service, fire protection and sprinklers, and a comprehensive security system with controlled access.

The facility layout includes two (2) C1D1 rooms, a dedicated R&D laboratory, a mezzanine-level production area, roll-up doors, two walk-in freezers, and efficient loading and logistics flow. The property is highly secure, fully fenced, and configured for operational continuity.

The offering includes fee-simple real estate, installed production and facility equipment, and operational approvals, providing a turnkey solution for qualified owner-users or strategic operators seeking an existing, operational facility rather than new development.
