Location Overview

Port St. Lucie (PSL) has rapidly transformed from a quiet suburban community into the 6th largest city in Florida and a major economic engine for the Treasure Coast. Strategically located halfway between Miami and Orlando, it offers a high quality of life that has made it one of the nation's fastest-growing metropolitan areas.

Rapid Expansion: The city's population reached approximately 258,575 in 2024, a staggering 24% increase since 2020.

National Ranking: Port St. Lucie has consistently ranked among the top 5 fastest-growing cities in the U.S.

Demographic Shift: While traditionally a retiree haven, the city is seeing a massive influx of families and young professionals drawn by its safety, affordability, and A-rated schools.
