Winston-Salem, NC 27101

Property Description:

For over a decade, the ground floor of the O'Hanlon Building was home to one of downtown Winston-Salem's most beloved restaurants — Mooney's Mediterranean Café, a lunch counter institution that packed this space with downtown workers every day from 2009 until the pandemic closed it in 2020.

Now available for the next operator or retailer to write the next chapter. The ±2,539 SF ground floor suite sits at the hard corner of W. Fourth and Liberty — one of downtown's most active intersections — inside the landmark O'Hanlon Building, on the National Register of Historic Places since 1984. Soaring double-height ceilings, wraparound storefront glazing, and original penny tile flooring deliver a canvas that's hard to find and impossible to fake. Steps from the Kimpton, The Benton, Marriott, Mast General Store, and Truist Stadium.
