

Property Features

226-228 Fort McKavitt Street, Mason, TX
76856
11,442± sf | 0.15± acres

Interior + Exterior Details

- Can be sold as a portfolio or separate
- Bed and breakfast or retail/office space with apartment loft
- Boutique hotel now offers eight guest rooms, each with a private bath
- Victorian woodwork, oak flooring, carpet, and pressed tin ceilings
- Adjacent space offers flexible potential uses such as offices, retail, or commercial wine-tasting rooms
- Buildings can be integrated into the hotel experience or operated separately for business expansion
- Second floor of the east building includes a one-bedroom residence with one and a half baths, a large living area, and an open kitchen. Full-length layout with elegant design for tranquil living
- Suitable as innkeeper quarters or premium guest accommodations
- Rich history and extensive features make this property a must-see to fully appreciate its offerings
- Restored in 1995 with careful attention to Victorian elegance and contemporary comfort
- Notable features include custom stained-glass transoms and curated antique furnishings
- Located in Mason's historic Courthouse Square, showcasing the charm and heritage of this rural Texas town
- Owner Operated
- Conveniently located 42 miles west of Fredericksburg
- Close proximity to thriving tourism industry near the 290 Wine Trail and several major hill country attractions
- Extra storage space
- Elevator
- Authentic vault preserved from the previous Commercial bank building

Jennifer Nack

GLOBAL REAL ESTATE ADVISOR

210.410.1276

jennifer.nack@sothebysrealty.com

jennifernack.sothebysrealty.com

 Kuper | Sotheby's
INTERNATIONAL REALTY